

Some Corrections to Marblehead Yacht Club and the Shipyard Waterfront (March 22, 2023)

p. 3 – Attachment G: change from 1885 to 1884 and from page 312 to page 313

p. 15 – Correct Map is below (insert this copy provided)

p. 19 – 4 lines up from bottom, correct date is 1945

p. 33 – Add Ladys Cove insert (below) at the end of the top paragraph that began on p. 32

Eventually, the cottages were replaced with large, stately homes built by mostly wealthy Salemites, who had the wherewithal to hire maids and cooks. Most of them lived in the Shipyard. These young ladies took pleasure in swimming together in the harbor area now known as Ladys Cove.

p. 70 – 3rd paragraph, last sentence, should end at 1931 (only one invitation was donated/found)

p. 221 – 5 lines up from bottom – change age from 26 to 38

p. 227 – caption for photo change depart to reach

p. 265 – 2 lines up – change inshore to insure

p. 313 – Top of page – Attachment G: change 1885 to 1884

